

Redeemed Connection Ministries is a 501c3 Non-profit organization.

Our mission is to introduce individuals and families dealing with issues of substance abuse and or despair to a life of faith that will empower them with principles and skill sets that will last them a lifetime.

R.C.M. will network with other organizations to provide training classes addressing: Employment, Economics, Community, Recovery, Lifestyle, Family, and Spiritual needs.

We see our ministries as conduits redeeming connections giving hope to overcoming despair.

Therefore, at this time we are seeking to connect: Youth, Young adults, and adults who need these areas to our job preparation training, and lawn maintenance grass cutting training program.

Through our: (Job Survival Series).

Class room training, hands on training, operations of tools and equipment utilization techniques, Basic business startup information.

All which will empower them to be ready for work and business.

This is a paid training program.
